THE ENGLISH ASSOCIATION

(FOUNDED 1906)

President 1947—SIR OSBERT SITWELL, Bart., LL.D.

Chairman of Committee—

Instr. Rear-Admiral SIR ARTHUR HALL, K.B.E., C.B.

AIMS AND ACTIVITIES

1. To unite and introduce to one another those who are interested in English Language and Literature, whether as writers, teachers, artists, actors, or administrators; and to act as a link between groups engaged in specialized English work.
2. To uphold the standards of English writing and speech; to contribute to English letters, scholarship, and research; to discuss methods of English teaching; and to encourage especially the work of younger members.
3. To spread as widely as possible the knowledge and enjoyment of English Literature.
4. To put these aims into practice by providing lectures, readings, discussions, social functions, a magazine and other publications; and to organize occasional visits to dramatic performances and places of literary interest.
5. Literary Advice Panel (for detailed particulars please apply to the Secretary).
